

Time Travelling With a Hamster.

Time Travelling With a Hamster started off really slowly, but as the book went on it got a bit faster and more interesting. It would fit into the genre of science fiction because AL, the main character has to time travel and remember codes.

I would rate it:

Ross Welgord.

The author Ross Welgord grew up in Cumbercoats, he left home at 18 and went to study English at Leeds University.

He started his first job as an Assistant editor on a London based Magazine (TV world)

He worked on some television shows like the time, The place and This morning with Richard Madeley and Judy Finnegan.

What does Ross like?

1. Hot curries
2. New York
3. Magic tricks
4. A proper cup of tea
5. Game of Thrones
6. Dolphins
7. Mangos
8. Hot summer days
