

M.G. Leonard.

M.G. Leonard's real name is Maya Gabrielle. The reason why she doesn't use her real name on the books is because her and her son don't have the same surname. So she promised him that she'd use the name M.G. Leonard if her books were published.

She has previously worked as the senior Digital producer at the National Theatre. Maya has also worked at the Royal Opera House and at Shakespeare's Globe.

M.G. Leonard has also got some other books but some of them are still waiting to be finished. Beetle Queen, Battle of the Beetles, The Bug Hunters and the Beetle collector's handbook.
